Montorno Artist Residency: led by Judy Southerland

arrive May 25 — depart June 6, 2019

For artists and students at all levels who want time and space to paint, draw, or construct across media. For those who want time and space to develop and make new art or extend and refine their ideas for ongoing work. Southerland will lead daily material and conceptual exercises providing structure, focus and challenge helping artists and students translate a unique place and experience into visually condensed, compelling shape and form. Critique will be an integral part of the studio experience. All artistic disciplines are welcome, and materials will be discussed so we can travel light.

The site is inspirational, the large studio excellent and the work can be experimental or sustained. The Venice Biennial is on this year with DC's own Martin Puryear representing the USA. Travel there is an option either before the residency or on the long weekend in between the 16 studio sessions over 8 days. Florence is an hour away, Pietrasanta and Lucca are even closer. And the food and our hosts are out of this world amazing!

Judy Southerland is an artist who lives and works in Washington DC. In 2018 her work was seen in "Latitudes" at the Katzen Art Center, American University Museum and is upcoming in "Textural Text" at the WAS gallery in Bethesda, MD. The artist's most recent solo exhibition was in late 2017 at the Hunt Gallery, Mary Baldwin University in Staunton, VA. Southerland is the recipient of three DC Commission Arts and Humanities Individual Artist's Grants and has work in public and private collections in the USA, in Europe and Singapore.

Workshop fee: $3,800.00 USD

A companion fee of $3,400 (USD) does not include drawing, painting, sculpting, or photography instruction. Accommodations are double occupancy. A limited number of single-occupancy accommodations are available for an additional fee of $500 (USD), due at the time of deposit.

This 13 day/12 night workshop includes just about everything except air fare—airport transfers, accommodations, fabulous home-cooked food and wine on painting days, transportation to painting locations, and lots of expert instruction. Participants bring their own paints and gear. Odorless mineral spirits provided.
