Art*iculation: Steven Walker & David Hazard

arrive May 13 — depart May 25, 2020

Art*iculation is a 13-day retreat that will help you hone your artistic, writing, and—as an added value, if you wish—your promotional and marketing skills. Artists and writers will come together in this unique retreat. Instructional sessions will be offered in painting, writing great narratives, also marketing. The creative emphasis for both artists and writers will be on building keen awareness—“really seeing what you see”. This will make your painting and writing more vivid and powerful. You will also learn how to “articulate”—put into words—what you want to say about your work or in your storytelling in a way that powerfully impacts and moves your readers. Instructional sessions include: plein air work; improving narrative (storytelling) skills; how to write compelling artist statements for exhibitions and websites (for artists); writing winning pitch and proposals (for writers); social media marketing.

Artists and writers are invited to sit in on any sessions in the interest of improving their observational, writing, and marketing skills. You can learn to see the way an artist sees and express yourself the way professional writers do. (Both painting and writing sessions will be offered multiple times, allowing attendees to create their own schedule.) The result of this cross-disciplinary retreat will be more captivating visual and written work.

Workshop fee: $3,840.00 USD

A companion fee of $3,440 (USD) does not include drawing, painting, sculpting, or photography instruction. Accommodations are double occupancy. A limited number of single-occupancy accommodations are available for an additional fee of $500 (USD), due at the time of deposit.

This 13 day/12 night workshop includes just about everything with the exception of air fare (airport transfers, accommodations, fabulous home-cooked food, wine, transportation to painting locations, and lots of expert instruction ARE included). Participants bring their own paints and gear. Odorless mineral spirits provided.
