Painting Light & Color in Tuscany: Angela Nesbit

arrive June 23 — depart June 30, 2020

Immerse yourself in the world of Tuscany. This workshop will focus on seeing the spectacular light and color—painting plein air at the Montorno studio (just north of Lucca) and the surrounding areas. This is an amazing opportunity to experience the beauty that Tuscany has to offer. Students will be immersed in both an artistic and cultural experience. Painting breathtaking mountain views, to charming villages and a colorful coastal port. There is a painting around every corner. We will spend time painting and eating at Montorno, the country home of our Italian hosts, which offers a rare glimpse into true Italian life. We have excursions to unspoiled locations such as, Pruno, Seravezza where Michelangelo once lived, and Pietrasanta, which are a visual and creative delight.

Painting days will be overflowing with information. Angela will focus on seeing light, color and value. Her teachings will include: demonstrations, easel-side instruction, and handouts on key topics. Topics covered will include: how to use exaggerated color to paint the Tuscan light, how to loosen up and have energetic paintings, and how to push values so your paintings sparkle. Angela paints in oils, but students may paint in oils or acrylics. Awesome art instruction with Italian culture plus amazing food equals a life experience that should not be missed! All levels are welcome.

A companion fee of $2,450 (USD) does not include drawing, painting, sculpting, or photography instruction. Accommodations are double occupancy. A limited number of single-occupancy accommodations are available for an additional fee of $350 (USD), due at the time of deposit.
